Local MD's threaten cutback of service in insurance flap

LIVERMORE — If valley doctors are going to be forced to pay one quarter or more of their net income for insurance, they're going to do it kicking and screaming.

They've even gone so far as to threaten not to pay for the coverage and, instead, to cut their practices to the bare bone and practice uninsured in case of emergencies only.

Malpractice insurance is about to more than triple in cost, and it wasn't low to begin with. There are five categories of coverage for M D.'s and in each category, rates are about to go through the roof.

General surgeons, for example, are about to be socked for $15,000 a year in insurance which would protect them for up to $3 million in liability. It is said that one in four doctors gets sued some time during his practice, many times by a disappointed patient after a high - risk and unsuccessful medical procedure, as well as when there is a legitimate complaint.

Because of the high probability of getting sued, there aren't many doctors willing to practice without coverage. In addition, Valley Memorial Hospital's own insurance company requires VMH staff doctors to be covered.

One local doctor, who didn't want his name used, contended half a doctor's income, which locally may average $60,000 or $80,000 a year, goes for overhead — nurse and receptionist salaries, office rental, supplies and myriad other expenses.

"That's if he's lucky. Some months it's as high as 60 per cent, usually not less than 50," the physician said.

Of the $30,000 to $40,000 average income the doctor has left as spending money, Argonaut Insurance Co. of Menlo Park (the only carrier even willing to consider handling malpractice insurance) wants to charge almost $5,000 per year to a low - risk doctor who never goes near an operating room; $9,000 to the physician who occasionally assists in surgery; $15,000 for a general surgeon; and almost $23,000 for high - risk specialists such as anesthesiologist, obstetrician, neurosurgeon and ear, nose and throat doctors.

Even at those prices, Argonaut expresses no enthusiasm at carrying malpractice insurance. But doctors are claiming the fees are out of the question.

They are also claiming insurance companies are paying multimillion dollar settlements which go mostly to lawyers who handle the case. Lawyers are claiming certain doctors are "repeaters" and that the medical profession needs better policing to throw incompetent doctors out.

The public is caught in the middle, because local doctors are following the lead of other medical groups in the Bay Area and threatening to stop practicing on May 1, when their current coverage ceases.

That would mean, as one doctor put it, "If your gall bladder hurts it will just have to keep hurting because we won't perform elective surgery, only emergency operations."

They will, however, continue to see patients who have been coming to them regularly for a specific problem.

The impending end to private malpractice insurance was foreseen back in February, when Argonaut Insurance first announced its intention to raise rates or cancel coverage altogether.The state Legislature immediately got to work trying to form an insurance system that could be state - operated.

But no new system is going to be ready in time, doctors fear (while others in the medical profession say the doctors are using "scare tactics)."

Doctors are asking the public to increase the disciplinary authority of the Board of Medical Examiners to eliminate incompetent physicians; change the statute of limitation to two years after injury; regulate contingency fees for attorneys; develop a system of binding arbitration that will remove medical liability claims from the court system; set legislative limits on the size of the awards; redefine medical liability and negligence; and allow admission to the court of all evidence.

A statement signed by 51 local doctors urges Valley residents to write to their state and federal legislators, asking them to take action on the insurance problem before it becomes a public health crisis affecting anyone who seeks medical care.

Arrow may drop Main St. site

PLEASANTON — Arrow Rentals has apparently abandoned plans to locate its equipment rental firm on Stanley Boulevard.

That proposed location raised controversy among neighbors on Vervais Avenue who complaimed traffic from the rental firm would create a burden on their narrow street.

The company is now seeking rezoning to locate its headquarters on a one-acre parcel at 3932 Santa Rita Road, according to the Alameda County Planning Department.

The property is outside the city limits but because of its proximity to the city, the Pleasanton Planning Commission will be asked to consider the proposed rezoning from agriculture to light industrial at its Wednesday night meeting.The Alameda County Planning Commission will consider the application at its April 28 meeting.

Representatives of Arrow Rentals were not available for comment as to the reasons for the sudden change in plans.

The commission wil also consider the long-awaited hillside ordinance which will regulate hillside developments so that views are not impaired and "prominent environmental characteristics" will be protected.

The ordinance includes a density adjustment formula which, City Attorney Ken Scheidig said he hopes, will "encourage innocative approaches to land use."

The commission will schedule a public hearing on that proposed ordinance for its May meeting.

The commission will also consider an application from H.C. Elliott, Inc. to establish a sales office in a model home complex at 560-592 Tawny Drive.

The Design Review Board and Board of Adjustments will consider a variance application and architectural approval for a 9,600-square foot commercial building to be located at 148 Ray St.

The variance is required because Koopman is providing a 30-foot-long loading berth where 45 feet is required.

The Design Review Board will also consider the application of Meadowlark Dairy for a 620 square foot addition to its sales store at 57 West Neal St. The commission meets at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the Pleasanton Justice Court, preceded by the Board of Adjustments at 7:15 p.m. and the Design Review Board at 7:30 p.m.

Airport plan may be modified

LIVERMORE — The airport committee appears to favor — with modifications — the basic $5 million development plan for the Livermore Municipal Airport proposed by its consultants.

The plan, known as Concept 5, is one of seven plans presented to the committee by its consultants, August W. Compton & Associates, last month.

Committee members seemed to favor Concept 5 at their noon meeting yesterday. They will study the plan to make a firm recommendation to the city council at a meeting next Tuesday.

Concept 5 calls for a 1,300 - foot extention to the existing 4,000-foot runway and the parallel construction of a new 3,200-foot runway and taxiway.

Extention of the runway would necessitate the relocation of six fairways of the Las Positas Golf Course and it is this factor the committee wants to study further.

An additional runway would take care of the increased number of aircraft anticipated to use the airport. The extended runway would take care of the more sophisticated "biz-jets" anticipated to use the airport.

The committee is looking at constructing the new, parallel runway but holding back on the extention — which would go into the golf course area — until such time as the "biz-jets" required the additional landing strip.

This delay is based on the assumption that "biz-jets" of the future may not need extended runways. In the event they do, the extention could then go into effect.

Presently, the airport handles "biz-jets" on its 4,000-foot runway.

Financing of the airport development will be 80 per cent by the federal government with a possible 10 per cent coming from state funds.

Norm Clark, the Federal Aviation Administration tower chief at the Livermore Municipal Airport, will be at the committee's Tuesday meeting to comment on ground operations.

At yesterday's meeting, committee members received copies of the airport's preliminary budget for the upcoming 1975-76 fiscal year.

The airport, which runs in the black, will have $273,332 in expenditures and anticipates $276,161 in revenues.

Included in the budget are an observation platform, 16 new T-hangars, 72 trees for the parking lot, three more ramp lights and the relocation of the fuel island.

The observation platform, which is expected to cost $4,000, is planned for the park area near the FAA tower to be used by the public for viewing the airport and aircraft.

If the new T-hangars are approved, the annual payment, which would be derived from the revenue from the hangars, is estimated at $11,520.

Trees are planned for the barren parking lot across from the terminal building as part of the airport beautification program. The purchase would be $433.

Ramp lights on 40-foot poles are needed for improved security and to provide adequate ramp lighting for aircraft as the parking area to the west fills up. The total cost is put at $5,000.

Relocation of the fuel island, which will cost $10,500, will place it closer to the administration building, which would improve customer service, utilization of manpower, and wear and tear on airport vehicles.

Regional parks to open despite ongoing strike

Sunol Regional Park opened its gates Monday morning to welcome wet visitors willing to use its grounds and facilities after having been closed since Thursday due to a strike over representation and wage issues. The strike continues in its sixth day as about 185 members of union local 2428 and East Bay Regional Park District Directors failed to reach agreement Friday on the issues separting the two sides.

Management has offered an average 14.5 per cent wage and fringe benefit increase, while union members proposals call for an average 23.8 per cent increase. Union negotiators, however, argue that money isn't the main issue.

The union claims removal of 50 supervisorial positions from union representation will break the labor group.

SR Homeowners back VCSD tax boost

SAN RAMON - The San Ramon Homeowners Association has given its "full endorsement" to the May 27, lease - purchase school bond election and Valley Community Services District's proposed 39 cent tax rate increase, according to association President Mike Wahlig.

In addition, the homeowners have pledged a $50 contribution to the Committee for Parks Developement, a group of VCSD residents organized to promote the revenue measure.

The endorsements were passed at last Thursday's association meeting, according to Wahlig.

The homeowners were also notified of the approval by the California Department of Transportation of the first stage freeway landscaping along the east side of I - 680 between Pine Valley Road and Yarmouth Drive.

According to Wahlig, design has begun and landscaping should start next month. The project will be completed in three, $10,000 stages, Wahlig said, adding the first section will be in the north, Yarmounth Drive area.

The association also announced the appointment of San Ramon resident Georgia Jacka to serve on a study commission examining future facilities for the Valley Memorial Hospital - Alameda - Contra Costa Counties service area. The appointment of a San Ramon resident had been strongly urged by the association, according to Wahlig, who emphasized Jacka would serve as a Contra Costa resident, and not as a representative of the Homeowners Associaion.

The candidate is Amador student

The number of applicants for the Amador Valley Joint High School District board seat vacated by Bert Hersevoort has grown to eight....with the latest application turned in by an Amador Valley High School student.

Deadline for persons wishing to submit a resume is Friday.Trustees will review the resumes and make an appointment at their meeting of Tuesday, April 15. The successful applicant will serve out two years and two months remaining on Hersevoort's term.

Latest to indicate an interest in the board seat is 17-year-old Michael Bailey, student body vice president at Amador, a national winner in 4-H photography, a National Merit Scholarship finalist and named "Outstanding Senior" by the Pleasanton Chapter of Soroptimists International and California Savings and Loan. He holds a 3.9 grade point average (4 is a straight A) and plans to attend Cal State Hayward.

Bailey will turn 18 three days before the Amador trustees make their selection known.

Unofficially, Bailey, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bailey of 6699 Alisal St., Pleasanton, is the first-ever student to seek an appointment to any council or school board in the valley.

Only other known applicant is Douglas Dollard, a 29-year-old vocational teacher at Eden Vocational in the San Lorenzo Unified School District. Dollard was an unsuccessful candidate for two board seats open in the March 4 election.

It is not known if any of the eight are from the Dublin area, in which Hersevoort resided during his tenure on the board.

Ten seek Maid's crown and sash

PLEASANTON - Ten young women have been selected as finalists for the Maid of Pleasanton Pageant that will grace the stage of the Fairgrounds Amphitheatre on Saturday, May 3.

Seeking the crown and sash now worn by Theresa Alexander will be Ginger Wilson, Linda Wilson, Kathy Oyler, Kim Mohatt, Kim McLeod, Lauri Howard, Lori Hickman, Patricia Gill, Cathy Gadd, and Rosalie Dwyer.

They were selected following a pre-judging competition held Saturday at Pleasanton Gardens.

In charge of the Pageant again this year will be Fred and Marie Cochran. The spectacular show of music, singing and dancing, with theme music "Beautiful Girl," will culminate a full day of activities in Pleasanton, starting with the "Let The Good Times Roll" parade at 11 a.m.

The Pleasanton Art League's annual Arts and Crafts Expo will also share the spotlight of activities.

Mike Cleary, a popular radio personality with KNBR in San Francisco, will serve as master of ceremonies. Tickets for the Pageant will be $1 per person and will be available at the Chamber of Commerce, 10 W.Neal St , and from each contestant.

Waive residency for Dublin Maid

DUBLIN — Chamber of Commerce President George Fallon will announce at tonight's board of directors meeting that Alameda County Fair manager Lee R. Hall has waived rule no. 9 in the County's maid contest to allow second runner - up in the Dublin Maid contest Brenda Sylva the chance to compete in the County - wide, June 29, fete.

/The Times announced Mar. 25 that recently crowned Maid of Dublin Louise Hodges, first runner - up Lisa Hendricks, and Sylva were ineligible under County Fair rules.

According to those rules, candidates in the running "must be residents of Alameda County continuously since January, 1975," and, "must be a resident of the city or community in which the local maid contest is held."

Both Hodges and Hendricks are San Ramon, Contra Costa County residents, and Sylva lists her address as Pleasanton.

The rules go on to state that "For this purpose, anyone who is a resident of Dublin or San Ramon living in Contra Costa County would not be eligible."

When contacted by the Times, Hall said he was, "exercising his prerogative under Rule 12," and, taking into consideration the fact that Sylva attends school in Dublin, offering the Chamber the chance to enter her in the Alameda County contest.

Hall said he, "felt it in the best interest of the community of Dublin, the Chamber of Commerce, and the Maid of Alameda County contest," adding the chamber may submit Ms. Sylva, "if they so desire."

Chamber President Fallon noted he feels, "that since we have a unique situation in our community — and I consider Dublin - San Ramon Village one community — then maybe some type of ruling could be made to allow girls that live in either one of these communities to represent the local Chamber of Commerce."

Hall added that the school district boundries include both Pleasanton and Dublin, and tha while Sylva will represent Dublin, she may not enter the Pleasanton contest.

While Fallon has not yet made formal overtures to change the rules, Hall admits he's, "definitely going to have to change the rules for next year," suggesting either employment or school in Dublin could grant eligibility for that unincorporated community, but that there would be "no chance" for a Contra Costa County resident to compete in the Alameda County contest.

Hodges will, however, represent Dublin - San Ramon in the Contra Costa contest.

Of the original 12 contestants for Maid of Dublin, only two — Debbie Dion and Monica Williams — were eligible for the county event under the literal interpretation of the rule.

The problem has come up in previous contests, and both Hall and Fallon hope a future solution can be worked out.

Staff was directed at the Mar. 13, meeting to inquire into the matter and report to the steering committee.

— The status of the formal Joint Powers Agreement distributed to members during March.

— COVA's membership drive to encourage more local agencies to participate in the Valley - wide congress.

— Assistance to the Del Valle Sanitorium proposal.

While most Valley agencies have shunned the proposed study either as meddling or as impetus to the proposed New Town development north of Livermore, Zone 7 has caustiously welcomed the Corps, requesting the Zone be made the coordinating agency.

Such a committee was suggested by Commissioner Glen Dahlbacka as a broader base for soliciting ideas for public works projects. It could be composed of seven to 11 people, he has said.

Also scheduled for discussion tonight are the site plan for the Ensign Bickford Realty Corp. residential development in the Portola Hills; neighborhood shopping center location standards, and any additional matters proposed by the planning commission or planning staff.

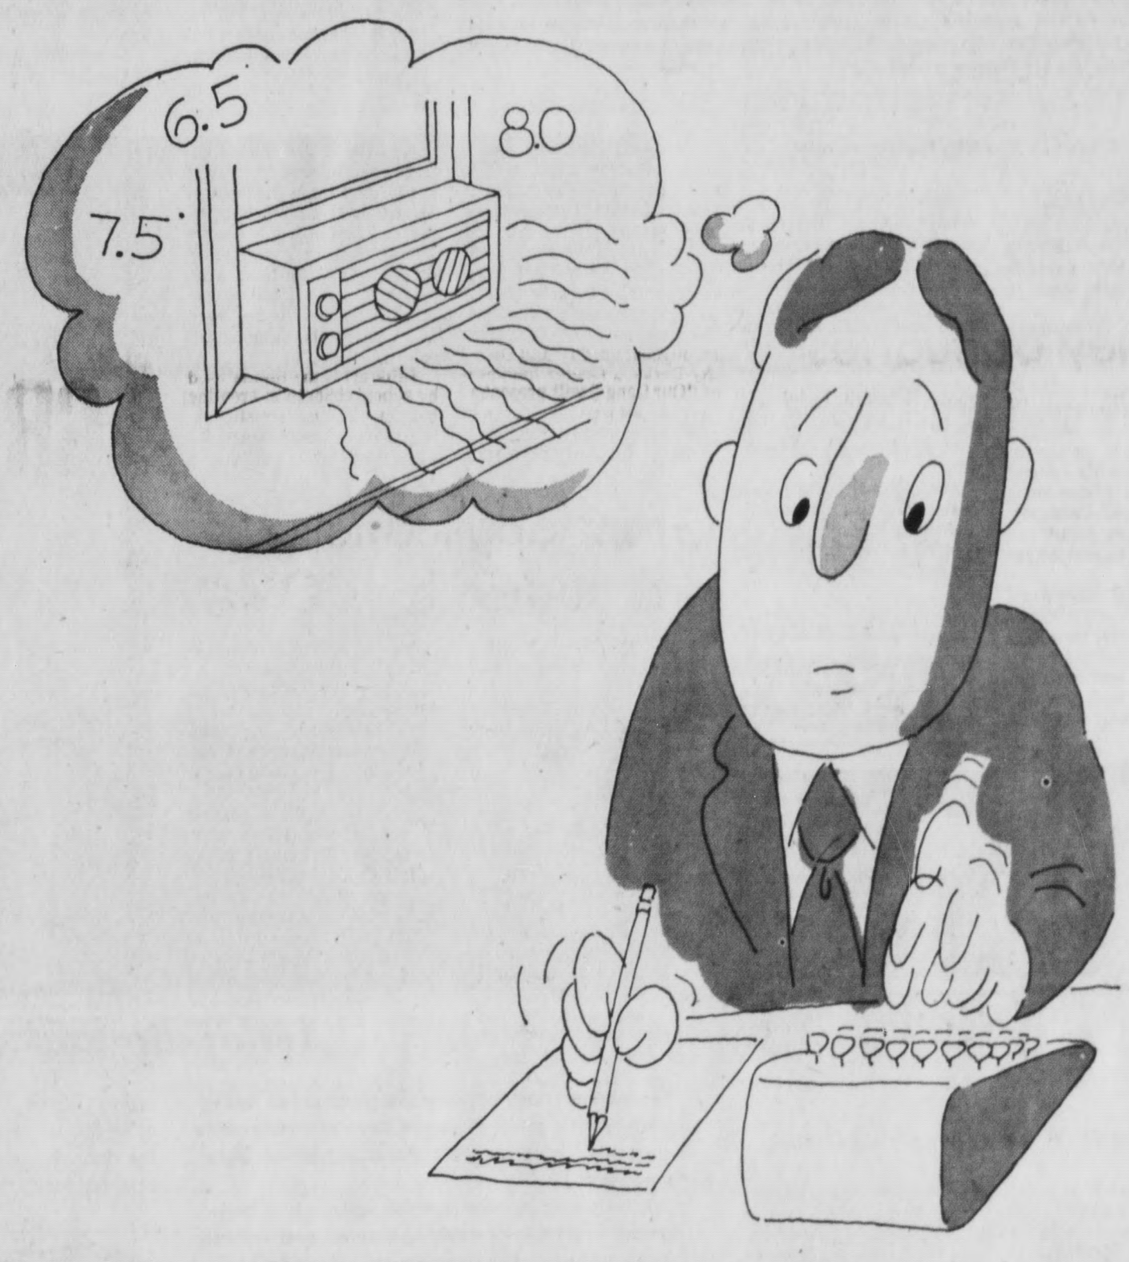
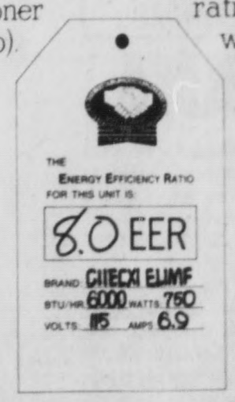
EER EXPLAINED.



The easy way to figure out how to get the most efficient room air conditioner for your money.

We're not encouraging you to buy a new or replacement air conditioner. But if you do, then get a unit that will give you the most cooling with the least electric use. That's an air conditioner with a high EER (Energy Efficiency Ratio). Here's how you determine the EER of a room air conditioner.

EER Simplified: All the information you need is shown on the unit. To get the EER, simply divide the cooling BTUs by the watts. Like this: 6,000 BTU ÷ 750 watts = 8.0 EER. EER numbers range from 4½ to 12. The higher the EER, the more efficient the air conditioner. PG&E recommends an EER of 7 or more for economy in room air conditioners.



EER Simpler Yet: Air conditioner dealers displaying the "We Care" sign have room air conditioners already tagged with the EER rating. So look for the yellow tag and you won't have to do any figuring at all.

What a high EER means to you: A high EER means you're getting the most cooling comfort for your money. Some room air conditioners use a lot less electricity than others for the same amount of cooling. A unit with an EER of 8.0, for example, uses 30% less electricity than one with an EER of 5.6. So look for a high EER. You'll cut your cooling costs. And you'll conserve energy, too.

Sentimental nonsense

Kookiest items to be auctioned at the Livermore-Amador Symphony Guild's 'Nostalgia Night' this Saturday are the old toupee donated by Bob Pritchard (center), former mayor of Livermore, and the actor's beard, gift from the personal collection of Mayor Ed Kinney of Pleasanton (not pictured). Livermore Councilwoman Joyce LeClair supports the symphony with a plant for auction, along with many other prominent citizens of the valley whose donations from the ridiculous to the sublime claim sentimental attraction. Peggy Burdick (seated) is chairman of the happening from 8:30 to midnight at Livermore's Barn. For tickets call Peggy at 443-9279.

Offer scenic rail tour

A scenic spring tour through Niles Canyon and over Altamont Pass via a special excursion train has been scheduled Saturday, April 12 through the efforts of the Pacific Locomotive Association.

The excursion train, first in the Bay Area since the advent of Amtrak and first passenger service over Altamont iin many years, will travel the usually "freight only" Southern Pacific route.

Departing at 10:30 a.m. from the Amtrak station in Oakland, the train will tour the rolling green hills of Niles and Altamont, the farmlands of the central valley (Tracy, Martinez) circling back to Oakland along the shoreline of San Francisco Bay. The train returns to Oakland's Amtrak station at 4:30 p.m.

Roundtrip excursion fare for the day-long trip is $19.50. Proceeds benefit development of the Pacific Locomotive Association's railroad museum near Richmond. Tickets are available from the association at 54 Hancock St., San Francisco. For further information contact Henry Luna at 398-2994 or Robert Hogan at 474-8711.

COMMUNITY SPIRIT ENCOMPASSES VALLEY

The Dublin Junior Women's Club has awarded gifts totaling nearly $900 to a variety of community projects. The club raised the funds with its fashion show project last November.

The Children's Emergency Council received a donation of $300 designated for assistance to needy persons of Dublin and South San Ramon. Recipient of a $200 gift was the Amador Scholarship, Inc. which provides college scholarships to community students

A monetary award of $150 in the form of a scholarship was given to the Teenage Citizen of the Year chosen during the Dublin Spring Festival.

Other recent contributions by the Juniors are a fire prevention film for children to be used by the local fire department, and a book cart for the Dublin library.

Tomorrow a "Kidnap for Cancer" organized by the Dublin Juniors will raise funds for the 1975 American Cancer Society campaign. Local merchants will be "kidnapped" and "imprisoned at the Dublin Refectory. The victims will be royally treated to wine, fondue and coldcuts from 3 to 5 p.m., or until they pay a "ransom" to be released.

Anyone interested in joining the fund-raising activity may call Mrs. Millie Niven at 828-5498.

'Sahara Summer'

Nielsen School PTA draws the curtain on its annual fashion show, "Sahara Summer," April 26 at 11:30 a m.

Fashions by McCaulou's Department Store in Danville, and hand-crafted garments will be featured with luncheon at the school's multi-purpose room.

Tickets at $3 for adults and $2 for children under 16 are available through Marlene Kammermonn at 828-1418.

By JANET TARA

While all plants need light, some need less than others to live and thrive. Here's a starter group of low-light plants to choose from.

Sansevieria (commonly called snake-plant), any of the cracaena family (corn plant is the most widely know), aglaonema (Chinese evergreen), ficus elastica (rubber plant), philodendrons, dieffenbachia (dumbcane), pothos (sometimes mistaken for philodendron), maranta (prayer plant) and spathiphyllum (a real tongue twister).

Take your pick. They are a hardy group.

They can survive most light conditions and will do very well in bright, indirect light. Their leaves will develop brown burn spots if put in full, direct sun.

IMPORTANT: Begin with a small collection. Become familiar with the requirements of each plant you buy before trying a different one. You can apply what you learn to new, more difficult-to-grow plants.

Don't be afraid to ask the nursery keeper for advise. Better to risk showing ignorance than kill your plant with misguided good intentions.

Arm yourself with a good book to help you diagnose ailments. One of the best and least expensive is "The World Book of House Plants."

Art of dip and sway

The mesmerizing, but misunderstood art of bellydancing, very much in vogue even in conservative circles, will enjoy a professional exposition Saturday, April 12.

It is important to note that the valley's first bellydancing festival is privately sponsored, and will take place at Livermore's Presbyterian Fellowship hall — not in the church. The fest promises an evening of visual delight from 7 to 10 p.m. and features local artists 'Malaika,' 'Nirvhana,' and 'Wadya.'

Tickets must be purchased in advance through Carol Jean's Dance Studio in Livermore or by calling 443-6552 for reservations. No tickets will be sold at the door. Babysitting services will be provided at a nominal fee at the hall.

Livermore Yoga instruction

A spring series of yoga instruction in Livermore will include two classes, in Hatha Yoga and in Meditation, Wednesday evenings at the Livermore High School portable classroom.

The classes, sponsored by the Yoga Society of San Francisco, continue through May 28. Instructor of the courses is Shantananda, president of the society and a disciple of Guru Rammurti S. Mishra, M.D., author of "Fundamentals of Yoga" and "Yoga Studies."

The Hatha Yoga class, incorporating yoga postures and breathing exercises, meets from 7 to 8:30 p.m. The Meditation class assembles from 8:30 to 10 p.m.

For further information call 447-3243.

Dublin seniors

The Senior Californians of Dublin-San Ramon will entertain guest speaker Ray Franchi at a meeting Thursday, April 10.

Franchi, a native of San Francisco noted for his knowledge of local history, will show slides and discuss the city's past.

Anyone 50 years of age or over is invited to join the group at Shannon Community Center. Members enjoy a bag lunch they have packed from noon to 1 p.m. with coffee provided by the club. The program follows.

ATTENTION:

THE MEDICAL LIABILITY INSURANCE CRISIS IS EVERYONE'S PROBLEM

We, the undersigned Valley Memorial Hospital Medical Staff Physicians, may not be able to practice medicine after April 30, 1975, if there is no medical liability insurance available to us at a reasonable cost. Up to the present time the expense of insurance has been passed onto the patient as part of the professional and hospital fees charged for medical care. The proposed new costs of insurance would place an extremely heavy financial burden on all patients by adding up to $5 to $10 per office visit. We, in good conscience, cannot pass these exhorbitant costs on to our patients without their understanding the seriousness and economic consequences of this crisis.

EFFECT ON PATIENT AND DELIVERY OF HEALTH CARE

For every dollar a jury awards, only 16 cents goes to the patient — the rest goes for court costs, attorney fees, and other charges. The patient ultimately pays the cost as:

1. Direct cost — $5,000 to $50,000 insurance premiums per physician per year.
2. Hospital liability insurance - $5.00 per patient.
3. The indirect cost of unnecessary laboratory and X-ray procedures performed on patients as part of "defensive medicine."

Increases in insurance costs will force retirement of older and part-time physicians. This will discourage practice in rural and low income intercity areas. This will discourage young physicians from coming to practice in this state. This will stop physicians from taking Medi-Cal patients and any patient on a fixed fee schedule because overhead expenses exceed fees allowed.

WHAT CAN BE DONE

We urge you to act now with the utmost haste to protect your public interest, and legally mandate the availability of this insurance at a reasonable cost, by writing your State and Federal Legislators.

THE FOLLOWING NEED TO BE DONE TO ACCOMPLISH A SOLUTION

1. Increase the disciplinary authority of the Board of Medical Examiners to eliminate incompetent physicians.
2. Change the statute of limitation to 2 years after injury.
3. Regulate contingency fees for attorneys to realistic levels as has been done in New Jersey.
4. Develop a system of contracted binding arbitration that will remove medical liability claims from the court jury system, so that most of any award will go to the injured patient and not for legal and court costs.
5. Set Legislative limits on the size of awards.
6. Re-define medical liability and negligence.
7. Allow the admission to the court of all evidence.

While the rains fell. . .

Photos and text by Bill Cauble

Rain fell and Alameda Creek began to swell as Sunol Regional Park's famous waterfall, "Little Yosemite" poured mightily over its neighboring rocks and flowed on as if to tour the park, its oldest friend.

A vulture hovered, lazily looking for food or just a new place to makes it home under a ceaseless drizzle.

A sky darkened and gloomy with rain sheltered the valley in its serenity, where Ohlone Indians once lived and played making peace in this virgin land.

Creaming through the air with songlike grace, a magpie soars from one fencepost to another in its constant quest for survival, seeking food and shelter under the drearly skies.

A windmill is silent as the winds begin to die and the night grows nearer, covering the aging fence which now separates only one quiet area from another; no ownership mars the beauty of this park.

Two magpies stare across the barren plain as the rain beats more heavily now, signaling the end of the day as dusk approaches.

The park pulls the cover of night over its sleepy head, and prepares for another quiet day, entertaining the people of the Valley as its done for two hundred years.

For Tuesday April 8, 1975

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Don't bring people into the act now who aren't helpful or pertinent to your immediate cause. They'll only gum things up.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Be careful not to criticize someone who's been helpful to you recently. Your remarks will anger this person when he learns of them.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Something will be offered you . You may think you're entitled to more. Don't talk yourself out of a good thing.

CANCER (June 21-July) You know the course of action you should now take but at the last minute you'll switch tactics to less effective methods.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) It's difficult for you to keep a secret today. You'll disclose something you shouldn't, then worry that you did.

There is no way to know just how good a bridge player the late Joseph E. Cain of Indianapolis would have been, if he had been able to devote more than a very small part of his time to the game.

Here is a hand he played, when the team of Welch, Buck, Wood and Cain won the open team championship in 1935. Larry Welch was a trifle out of place on that team — his name was too long.

Joe didn't have much of a two bid and Edson Wood had to scrape the bottom of the barrel to find a positive response. Joe used the new Blackwood convention to get to the spade slam.

Hearts were opened and continued and at trick three Joe made the first key play to let him make the slam. He led the jack, not the five of clubs to dummy's queen.

Next came the 10 of spades from dummy. East played low and Joe was careful to play his nine. This made it possible for dummy's eight to hold the next spade trick so he could finesse for the third time.

Joe pulled the last trump and led his king of clubs. When East showed out Joe was able to lead that five spot he had preserved, finesse dummy's nine and make his optimistic slam.

Robersons in all-star grid

The Robersons of Dublin will ride again in tandem as a finale to their high school sports careers.

Rayford and Troy, the twins who have played basketball and football together since they were this high, were named today to the 28-man Alameda County All-Star football squad which will meetsContra Costa County August 15 in the 10th annual Cerebral Palsy Charity Football Classic.

They join Livermore High's Doug Pope as the only three EBAL representatives to the all-star team. Twelve of the 28 players hail from the Alameda County and Hayward Area athletic leagues.

Rayford Roberson, 6-3, 185, is planned on o play linebacker by co-coaches Tony Fardella and Pete Michaletos. Troy, 6-0, 185, The Robersons were instrumental in leading Dublin High to the EBAL championship this past football season. Rayford was honored as an all-EBAL and All-East Bay football selection.

Pope, of Livermore, was an all-league guard for the Cowboys The 6-0, 195 lineman will probably be used on offense in the all-star game.

For the Robersons, it should mark their final contest as teammates. Rayford will play football at San Jose State this fall. Troy will play basketball either at San Jose, or St. Mary's.

Three players from powerhouse Skyline High are on the Alameda team, quarterback Drew Field, 6-3, 185, running back Theotis Brown, 6-3, 205, and wide receiver Charles Hill, 6-2, 175.

Berkeley landed three players on the Alameda roster, Eugene Fortune, 6-0, 195 tackle, linebacker Larry McGrew, 6-5, 215, and defensive back Frank Rogers, 5-7, 145.

Mission San Jose is the only other school to place three players on the squad. The Warriors selected include tight end Bob Stein, 6-2, 195, running back Steve Noon, 6-0, 200, and tackle Julian Santoyo, 6-2, 210.

The all-star team will begin practices Sunday, Aug. 3, for the game August 15. For the second year, the All-Star Classic will be held at Fudenna Field in Fremont, adjacent to Washington High School.

Tickets at $5 are available now at All-Star Headquarters, 1904 Franklin St., Oakland.

Friday night's International Track Association meet was a good indication of local fans' acceptance of Mike O'Hara's new approach to the sport.

Not that they came out in droves — roughly 7,000 were present, and true to form, O'Hara announced 10,000. More important, the level of excitement in the arena was measurably higher than that of two years ago, when ITA played to 3,500 here on a Sunday night.

Part of the upsurge, the majority in fact, is due to the addition, in 1974, of several key figures. For that second season, O'Hara signed vaulter Steve Smith to battle Bob Seagren, hurdler Rod Milburn to devastate the thin field in that event, Dave Wottle to wear his golf cap, and Ben Jipcho to work miracles.

Jipcho won all but two of his races in '74, for a pre-tax total of $16,700. The charismatic Kenyan finished the tour with a 3:56.6 mile in Madison Square Garden.

Three weeks ago in Los Angeles, he posted the greatest indoor distance running double, winning the two mile in 8:27.0 and coming back 55 minutes later to take the mile in 3:56.2.

With its headliners performing well, ITA has been able to direct most of the sporting public's attention away from operational problems and toward the proven quality of its athletes.

Add to this a new willingness among sponsors and networks to contract with pro track, and the result may be a clear profit for ITA in only its third season. The 3-M company has taken on sponsorship of the tour, while Post Cereals, Pro Keds and Personna are among those who have been carrying individual events

Another plus has been the addition of Bob Steiner, the former University of California Sports Information Director, as head of public relations. Steiner brought a wealth of track expertise when he arrived in mid-tour last year, and his skill with the media has made ITA all the more credible.

To be sure, there are internal hassles involving discontent among athletes who feel that the prize money — $600 is the customary take for first place, with a $2,000 event rotating meet to meet — and the lack of a minimum salary could be improved upon.

There is only one women's event. Four women traveling with 55 men and an all-male staff. If this isn't tokenism, the word should be struck from the language. As if to drive the point home, there's even a "novelty" race featuring one of the women verus one of the shotputters. Go get 'em, gals.

Other sores continue to fester, notably the prolonged absence of distanceman Kip Keino and sprinter John Carlos. Keino sits at home in Kenya, while Carlos waits for a substantial offer.

Carlos won 12 of 16 races last year, including a 9.3 100-yard dash and a 20.3 220 at El Paso. He is asking $35,000 to sign. ITA has offered $6,000 in bonus money, spread over three years, plus prize money and expenses. Last year his phenomenal performances brought him $6,100. The standoff continues, with ITA arguing that Carlos' asking price and volatile personality make him a "loaded gun" (in Steiner's words) where sponsors are concerned.

Carlos counters with the equally convincing argument that his presence would bring quality to a lackluster sprint field, and that his mouth could pump the gate in a provocative way, not necessarily negative.

"John is a rebel, for whatever reasons," says the ITA President in partial reference to Carlos' victory stand demonstration at Mexico City in 1968. "What I'd like to do is to convert his dynamism into a positive force."

Carlos figures he's already a positive force, and his opinion is supported by many athletes who admit that his presence at a meet gets the crowd moving and juices up the other performers as well.

"Look at all the good publicity I got for Mike O'Hara last year," Carlos says. "I can pump the gate better than anyone, whether I'm winning or losing. People react strongly to me, so they're either going to root hard for me to win, or equally hard for me lose."

At ITA's San Francisco meet, Brian Oldfield put the shot 72-6½ , the longest throw in world history. A promised sub-4:00 mile by Jipcho never materialized on the notoriously slow Cow Palace boards. And as if ITA needed a security problem, the same race was crashed by a jerk in pilot's headgear and goggles, carrying a tape recorder. He lasted a lap before being tackled, and later affirmed that he was a Vietnam veteran who had been training for some time with the confidence that he was among the world's best milers.

There are some who would argue that he picked the right spot for his debut, given the array of gimmickry which ITA already displays. Others figured that he was just part of the show.

Toward the end of the meet the two giant double-edge razors supporting the crossbar in the "PersonnaVault" came close to collapsing when the standard was raised to 18 feet, bringing to mind Olympic 440 gold medalist Vince Matthews' remark that he would quit the tour the minute a cement company bought into the long jump.

The aesthetic and financial travesty of ITA's first year is rapidly fading from memory. There will be a brief hiatus between now and the 1976 Olympics, from which O'Hara will certainly pluck enough familiar names (Prefontaine, Stones, Wohlhuter, Bayi, Steve Williams?) to put the show in the "consistent sellout" category.

And then there will be no need for Bob Steiner's somewhat patronizing question of a week ago: "Tell me, when this thing started two years ago, did you ever think Mike O'Hara had a chance of making it go?"

For those who know or have worked with O'Hara, also a co-founder of both the American Basketball Association and the World Hockey Association, those two bullwarks of the new gluttony in American professional athletics, the answer goes without saying.

Sports in brief

'Poke golfers throttle Mats

Keith Voelker and Neil Zurakowski shared medalist honors with a pair of 37's as the Livermore golf team downed Granada, 194-204, yesterday at LAs Positas.

Jeff Stefani was the leading Matador with a 38, followed by Livermore's Mike Lewis and Jeff Smith at 39 and 40. Granada's Bill Bieber also carded a 40.

Livermore is now 4-0 in EBAL play, 7-0 overall, and faces a Thursday afternoon showdown with Amador at Castlewood Country Club.

"I was real pleased with our team effort, considering the fact that it was raining half the match," said Cowboy coach Jim Raybourne.

Boot signups

Livermore Soccer Club will hold two weekend signups in April for boys six to 17 years of age.

All registration will be at the Carnegie Hall, Fourth St., in Livermore.

Registration dates are April 19, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and April, noon to 4 p.m., and April 26, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and April 27, noon to 4 p.m.

Players should bring birth certificates.

The Club is the result of a merger of the Atomic, Granada, Independent, St. Michael's, and LYSO clubs.

Blind draw

Pleasanton Racquet Club will open its 1975 tournament season with a mixed doubles, blind draw tournament April 19 and 20 at Amador Valley High School.

Registration fee is $2 per person, and entries are due April 14. Forms are available at the recreation department.

Grated Cheese

Tickets are available through area merchants for the Oakland Raiders' benefit basketball game April 24, 8 p.m. at Foothill High School in Pleasanton.

The Raiders, paced by Fred Biletnikoff, Cliff Branch and Dan Conners, will play Cheese Factory, championship team in the Pleasanton recreation department program.

Proceeds from the game will go to the Foothill High School athletic fund. Tickets are $2 for adults, and $1.50 for students. They are available at Rob's Hickory Pit, Pleasanton Lounge, Amador Sports and Hobbies, Wagon Wheel, Dublin Corral, Ability Tennis and Trophies, and Cheese Factory.

Shamrocks grab U-12 State Cup

"It was quite a game, really."

Dublin Shamrocks' coach Dave McDonald had more to say about his team's 1-0 overtime victory over the Wolters Cherokees of Fresno for the under-12 State Cup.

"I expected them to be more of a defensive team, but they came out attacking," said McDonald "In the first half, they had us by a large margin in shots on goal."

McDonald cited exceptional play by goal keeper David Snyder, along with excellent fullback play, as the reasons for Dublin's ability to hold off the Cherokees in the early going.

"They were really hungry and played very good soccer," he noted. "But all our fullbacks — Brian McDonald, Eddie Lopez, John Kulak, Mike Diamond and John Collins — played well. And Snyder saved some impossible shots."

The Shamrocks dominated the first 10 minutes of overtime, and put together the winning goal five minutes into the period. Lopez, playing wing-half, headed the ball over the head of a Cherokee defender. Jim Grant took nontrol for Dublin and outmaneuvered the Cherokee goal keeper and one fullback to score from about 10 yards out.

Dons 7th, face Mustangs

Amador Valley High continues its climb back to the top in East Bay baseball, but faces the steep portion of that ascent today in Pleasanton.

The Dons jumped from ninth to seventh place in the prep poll released today after opening the EBAL with a 4-3 victory at Granada Friday. Amador was ranked number one at the end of last year.

To move closer to the promised land, Amador must beat Monte Vista this afternoon in Pleasanton. Game time is 3:30.

The Mustangs are 10th rated, and like Amador 1-0 in the league. They defeated San Ramon a week ago.

In other league action this afternoon, Livermore, 13th ranked, is at San Ramon.

Skyline High of Oakland, which hasn't played a game in two weeks due to rainouts, remains the number one team in the East Bay with a 7-1 record. St. Mary's is second, followed by Pleasant Hill.

San Ramon, Dublin and Granada all received honorable mention for the top 15.

Foothill High's junior varsity came up with two runs in the top of the seventh inning to take a 3-1 decision from Monte Vista yesterday in Danville.

Barry Cortan singled home Randy Scroggins, then Keith Suer scored on a wild pitch, to ice it for the Falcons.

Scroggins went the distance on the mound, striking out three and walking one.

Building woes aired

LIVERMORE - Times are tough for the valley construction worker and he wants the city to make local building easier, the city council was told Monday night.

Critical comments from realtor John Reagan and local construction workers kicked off the council meeting during the Open Forum.

Council members explained that building permits indeed were available in Livermore but because of hard economic times nation-wide, developers were not applying for them.

Councilwoman Helen Tirsell offered to meet with the workers to present the city's facts on paper.

Pizza and song

Ed Graff, George Campbell, Tim Fallon and Ed Dane of the Men's Barbershop Chorus will be among a long list of performers enlivening the Pizza Arcade, 4098 East Ave., Livermore, between 6 and 9 o'clock tonight. Food prices are the same as always, but proceeds will go toward the Granada High School Bands' spring trip to Disneyland.

Antimicro agents talk at hospital

LIVERMORE - "Antimicrobial Agents" will be the topic of three Tuesday evening lectures by nationally known pharmacologist Dr. A. J. Trevor at the Veterans Administration Hospital.

Dr. Trevor, associate professor of pharmacology, U.C. Medical Center, will stress the rational use of modern antibiotics, a growing concern in hospitals through the country.

Lectures will begin at 7:45 p.m. April 8, 15 and 22 in the VA Hospital Recreation Hall. All interested health professionals are invited to attend. There is no charge.

For more information, contact Dr. J. E. Bourinskie, program coordinator, at 447-2560, ext. 219.

Bicentennial budget is top item on supervisors' agenda

Alameda County Bureau

OAKLAND—The Alameda County Board of Supervisors will discuss a proposed budget for the county Bicentennial Commission at its meeting this morning.

The supervisors have set up a non-profit Bicentennial Corporation to oversee county activities. Proposed budget until the end of the fiscal year is $14,082.

The board will also discuss abatement proceedings involving a substandard dwelling at 2893 Kilkare Road in Sunol, owned by Phyllis Gilbert.

According to a spokesman for the Alameda County Building Inspection Department, the structure has been vacant for more than a year after the county determined the septic tank system was insufficient. Since that time, the building has been seriously damaged by vandals.

If the supervisors approve the abatement proceedings, the structure would be demolished.

The board will also hear a report on litigation concerning the loss of social services for the 1974-75 fiscal year and will consider approval of contracts with Livermore and Pleasanton (among other sub - agencies) for distribution of Title 11 Public Service Employment Program funds.

The supervisors meet at 9 a.m. today in the Alameda County Administration Building, 1221 Oak St.

New CC jail rapped

MARTINEZ — The great debate over those plans for a new jail facility in Contra Costa County may end on a constitutional note if it is determined the jail cannot be built because it calls for housing more than one prisoner in each cell.

Calling the county's position "hopeless," Sen. John Nejedly (R - Walnut Creek) has rapped the board of supervisors for pushing ahead with plans for the jail even though that design "raises a serious constitutional question." Past federal court rulings have determined a cell presents "cruel and unusual punishment" when more than one prisoner is detained in any one cell. The new county jail calls for as many as six prisoners in each cell.

That $21 million facility, to be built at Martinez, has been under fire from several sources in recent weeks.

VCSD revenue pact approved by board

Alameda County Bureau

OAKLAND—The Alameda County Board of Supervisors approved a $25,000 revenues-haring contract with the Valley Community Services District Tuesday night by a 4-1 vote.

The money will be used for development of the Dublin Sports Grounds and total cost is estimated at more than $50,000.

Chairman Fred Cooper opposed the action because he contended the sports park is being developed by a "city" park district.

The supervisors also approved plans and specifications for the improvement of San Ramon Road at the Alcosta Boulevard and Shannon Avenue intersections at an estimated cost of $21,000. Bids on the project will be received May 6.

In addition, the board approved a $51,479 expenditure for Zone 7's Del Valle Water Treatment Plant, which will provide for stand by power for the plant in the event of a power outage.

John Weisser, right, holds beautiful and informative fact book that area merchants will have an opportunity to be a part of. John shows cover, which features a multi - colored scene of downtown, to Ted Mann who will help obtain sponsorship pledges. Chamber members will begin seeking pledges in coming week so that all merchants will have chance to become part of community fact book and business directory.

Ministry for aging created

The Valley Covenant Ministry is sponsoring an agency, Ministry to the Aging Through Community Help, (MATCH), which will allow volunteer visitors to create personal, one to one relationships with residents of local convalescent homes. MATCH is designed to foster a support system for lderly persons in need of a "special friend."

On April 12, MATCH will hold a workshop to educate the community on the issues of the aging.

Mrs. Kathleen McConnell, associate director of Friendly Visiting Service in Santa Clara will tell about her agency and the impact it has had on Santa Clara.

Dr. Russell V. Lee , M.C. from Palo Alto Medical Center, a noted authority and author of several publications in the field of geriantology will speak on "The Older Person."

The workshop will be held at Asbury United Methodist Church, 4743 East Ave., Livermore, phone 447-1950, on Saturday, April 12 from from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Participants are requested to bring a bag lunch.

LeClaire replaces Floyd Mori

ALAMEDA - Pleasanton Councilwoman Joyce LeClaire and Fremont Councilman Leon Mezzetti were appointed to the Criminal Justice Planning Committee by the Alameda County Mayors' Conference Thursday night.

LeClaire replaces Assemblyman Floyd Mori, former mayor of Pleasanton, on that committee and Mezzetti replaces Fremont Mayor Gene Rhodes.

The Mayors' Conference also discussed AB 625, the bill which would creatp a Bay Area Planning Agency. The most controversial recent amendment to that bill was a provision for a "super-mayor" to oversee the new agency, which was discussed by the mayors, although no action was taken.

The Mayors' Conference is expected to take a position at next month's meeting.

Pleasanton pair get travel group posts

Mr. and Mrs. Carlin Perkins of Pleasanton, both teachers in the Fremont Unified School District, have been appointed teacher-counselors in Scholastic International's 1975 study travel program for junior and senior high school students.

They will escort a group of 10 students to England, France, Switzerland, Italy, Spain, North Africa, and several Mediterranean islands starting July 7 for three weeks under the auspices of Scholastic Magazines, Inc., one of the nation's leading educational publishers.

"This will be an exceptional opportunity for students to have a learning experience and a vacation at the same time," said Perkins.

Commenting on the ages of the students, Perkins said, "It's never too early to help a young person gain perspective and to know that his way is not the only way, that his language is not the only language, that 'strange' and 'way out' can apply to him as well as to foreigners. We may think these things intellectually, but first hand experience really makes us know."

Carlin and Lynn Perkins will meet with interested students and show a film on Wednesday at Mission San Jose High School at 7:30 p.m. in Room C-6. All interested students and parents are welcome. For further information, call 846-7552.

Supervisors approve amendment

Alameda County Bureau

OAKLAND — The Alameda County Board of Supervisors unanimously approved an ordinance amendment Thursday which will allow those who are "adversely affected" by a proposed subdivision to appeal it.

Until the State Legislature passed a bill last year, which was prompted by Alameda County, only the subdivider himself or the county planning director had the power to appeal a decision.

The state's action, which was less than what the county had asked for, now broadens that appeal power to include those who are "adversely affected" by a proposed subdivision.

The county board of supervisors will have a 15-day period to determine if the person or persons who appeal a proposed subdivision are indeed "adversely affected" by it.

Calamities can lower taxes

Alameda County Bureau

Citizens whose homes have been damaged by "misfortune or calamity" have until the end of June to request a reassessment of their property from the Alameda County Assessor's Office.

Following that date, any citizens whose homes are damaged and who wish a reassessment to lower their property taxes will have must file that request with the assessor's office within 60days of th "calamity or misfortune."

The Alameda County Board of Supervisors amended that ordinance to extend the deadline until June and to change thp place of filing from the clerk of the board to the assessor's office Tuesday night.

For further information concerning the ordinance, contact the assessor's office at 846-3277, extension 6036

Local number for pilots

Beginning April 15, pilots in the Livermore, Pleasanton, Dublin and Sunol areas will be able to contact Stockton Flight Service Station through a local phone number — 455-5220.

Chief Edward Harris of the Stockton Flight Service Station is confident the local number "will be more convenient for pilots and will encourage good safety practices by making it easier to get a pre-flight briefing and file a flight plan prior to flight."

The 455-5220 number will be toll free when calling from the following valley exchanges: 443, 447, 455, 462, 828, 829, 846 and 862.

Carrier test

Navy Seaman Dale P. Eklund, son of Mr. and Mrs. W.F. Gray of 707 Mojava Ave., Livermore, recently participated in an amphibious training exercise while deployed to the Western Pacific aboard the nuclear powered aircraft carrier, USS Enterprise.
